

TEAMWORKS BATTLE OF THE BREEDS

Event Description

- First and foremost, this is a FUND-RAISER and a FUN-RAISER 😊 .
- Anyone who is entered in at least one splash of Distance Jumping at the Teamworks August NADD event can participate in the contest. A dog can be entered in just one of the contests, or all of them (see form).
- Enter a contest by filling out a contest entry form. Only distance jumps will be used (not AR or HD). Once a dog is entered in a contest, all distance jumps for that dog will be used in the contest. Forms cannot be changed after they are turned in. Jumps cannot be withdrawn from the NADD event after the form is turned in.
- Each person will be issued a color-coded wrist band so we can keep track of what contest you are entered in. You must wear this wrist band on the dock when you jump the dog that is entered in the contest.
- Entry forms must be submitted at the event, and no later 9am, before the first jump of the day. Only the person jumping a dog can enter that dog in the contest. No entry forms will be accepted after 9am on Sunday.
- A minimum donation of $10 to the Romanian League in Defense of Animals, which is taking in homeless animals from Ukraine. You can donate online <https://rolda.org/> and bring a receipt in (preferred), or you can bring cash or a check (written to Teamworks, but with ROLDA donation written in the memo field).
- T-shirts are available to support this charity and will be available for sale on site.
- Medals will be awarded to the winners from all four contests on Sunday, after the last distance jump and before HD begins. Winners do not have to be present but must pay postage if they want their medal to be mailed to them.
- There may be some other toy prizes awarded for “most leisurely return swim” and “most unusual throw”. These prizes will be determined by the judges.
- In the event of inclement weather on Sunday that completely prevents us from having the Sunday event, we will conclude the event on Saturday. However, as long as we are able to jump on Sunday, we will conclude the event on Sunday. Any changes in the event will be posted on the Teamworks website.
- This contest is not in any way affiliated with North America Diving Dogs – it is simply a charity fundraiser. All NADD rules and regulations and facility rules still apply to the event.
- This contest has its own web page at <http://www.teamworksdogtraining.org/battle-of-the-breeds/>
